Q1 What is the different between the Partnership Oath and marriage?

A1 The “marriage” means an act based on the law, which gives rise to legal rights/obligations (such as inheritance rights and duty of support). On the other hand, the “Itabashi City Partnership Oath System” is established according to the outline of the Itabashi City, which does not give rise to any legal rights/obligations.

Q2 Is the partnership oath permitted only for same-sex couples on the family register?

A2 In the case of a promise regarding the continuous cooperation in daily life by respecting the mutual human rights as a partner in life, any opposite-sexual couples (one or both of sexual minority) are permitted to make an oath.

Q3 Will there be any changes in description of the family register / resident record due to the Partnership Oath?

A3 There will not be any changes in description of the family register / resident record due to the partnership oath.

Q4 Will there be any fees for the Partnership Oath?

A4 It is not required to pay any fees for the issuance of the Oath/Receipt, etc. However, any fees for the issuance of the required documents for the oath and postage for the return notification will be borne by you.

Q5 Is the partnership oath permitted for any residents outside Itabashi City?

A5 Even in the case of any residents outside Itabashi City at the time of making an oath, it is permitted to make an oath for any persons planning to move to Itabashi City within 3 months. In this case, the Provisional Receipt will be issued.

Q6 Is the partnership oath permitted even in the case of any adopted child?

A6 In the case of adoption based on the partnership relation, it is permitted to make an oath.

Q7 Is it permitted to follow the procedure at Itabashi City Office even in the case of a single visit?

A7 With regard to the issuance of the Receipt after moving to Itabashi City (in the case of the Provisional Receipt already issued), re-issuance of the Receipt, etc., a change of details on the oath document and return of the Receipt, etc., it is permitted to follow the procedure by through a single visit. However, in these cases, it is required to describe matters regarding the partner on the name column of the Receipt card as well as each application form.

Q8 Is it permitted to make an oath by anyone on behalf of the parties?

A8 It is not permitted to make an oath by anyone on behalf of the parties.

Therefore, both of the parties are required to visit there. In principle, self-writing/self-sign on the oath document is required. However, in the case of difficulty in self-writing/self-sign due to any reason, it is permitted to write/sign by anyone in the presence of the parties. If desired, apply for it in advance at the time of prior reservation.

Q9 Is it permitted to use the alias at the time of the partnership oath?

A9 It is permitted to use the alias used on a daily basis in social life (the name also described on the Receipt, etc.). However, the alias will not be described on the resident record even in the case of foreign residents. In case you desire description of the alias on the resident record for foreign residents, it will be required to separately follow the procedure based on the different requirements.

Q10 How long does it take?

A10 It should take between 30mins to 1 hour as long as all the required documents are submitted for screening. The Receipt, etc. will be issued on the oath date (in the case of both of residents living outside Itabashi City, The Provisional Receipt will be issued)

Q11 What kind of situations can the Receipt, etc. be used?

A11 For more details about available service for residents by showing the Receipt, etc., and utilization plans/activities of the Receipt, refer to the website of Itabashi City.

The Itabashi City Website

<https://www.city.itabashi.tokyo.jp/tetsuduki/jinken/jinken/1048422.html>

Q12 What should we do in the case of moving out of Itabashi City?

A12 Submit the return notification and the Receipt, etc. However, it excludes in the case of moving out of Itabashi City temporarily (for approximately 5 years or shorter) due to transfer, disease of relatives or any other unavoidable reasons.

Q13 What should we do in the case of dissolving the partnership?

A13 Submit the return notification and the Receipt, etc. In the case of submitting the return notification by one of the parties, the revocation notice of Itabashi City Partnership Oath will be sent to the other party. In addition, we will ask for return of the Receipt, etc. to the other party.
